

CRAIG GREEN

Managing Partner

E X P E R T I S E

“ We understand that your costs go beyond our costs. On this, and on all other issues, I emphasise open communication ... ”

As one of Australia’s leading lawyers in banking services Craig heads one of the country’s largest banking teams handling commercial and retail banking transactions.

Craig oversees thousands of banking transactions each month giving him extensive insight into the banking industry. He also holds the distinction of being MacGillivrays’ longest serving employee. After joining MacGillivrays in 1976 as an articled clerk, Craig became a partner in 1982, and was Managing Partner for ten years from 1994.

As part of MacGillivrays’ commitment to training and education, Craig regularly delivers seminars on mortgage lending law to clients and small business groups. He has also lectured in mortgage lending law at both the Securities Institute of Australia and TAFE.

Craig is admitted to practise in all states and territories of Australia and is a notary public.

He has held the positions of National Vice President and Queensland President of the Mortgage and Finance Association of Australia and is currently a member on the Queensland council.

When he’s not working, Craig spends time with his children, surfs and goes to the gym.
